

MATTHEW ORLOVICH

australian composer

profile 2010

Matthew Orlovich (b. Sydney, 1970) studied composition at the University of Sydney with Eric Gross and Peter Sculthorpe, gaining the degree of B.Mus (Hons and University Medal) in 1993 and PhD in 2001. His works include solo instrumental pieces, chamber music, choral scores, orchestral works and combined choral orchestral works, in addition to music for theatre.

Matthew's music has been performed widely in Europe, as well as in Canada, the Middle East, USA, New Zealand and Australia. Performers have included The Australian Voices, The Zurich Ensemble for New Music, The Harvard University Choir, The Choir of London, The Grevillea Ensemble, The Melbourne Chorale, Romp Duo, NSW Combined School Choirs and Public School Symphony Orchestra, St Olaf Cantorei, St Peters Chorale, The Seymour Group, The National Youth Choir of Australia, The Grainger Wind Symphony, The Song Company, Australian Intervarsity Choral Festival Choirs, Sydney Conservatorium Chorale, Waratah Girl's Choir, The Hunter Singers, San Francisco State University Chamber Singers, Sydney Philharmonia Symphonic and Motet Choirs, Sydney Symphony Orchestra and Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra, plus many more...

Several prizes and awards helped to encourage Matthew in the early stages of his composing career. His academic prizes included the Sarah Theresa Makinson Prize for Musical Composition, the Busby Musical Scholarship, the Frank Albert Prize and an Australian Postgraduate Research Award. Matthew also received the 1991 2MBS-FM Composer's Competition Highly Commended Award, the 1994 Jean Bogan Memorial Prize for Piano Composition and the 1995 ABC Orchestral Composers' Award.

In 1996, two of his a cappella choral scores – On Sutherland's Grave and The Listening Land – were performed at the 4th World Symposium on Choral Music, and in 1997 his commissions included Lo, there is light! for the 87th Harvard University Carol Service, Voice of the River for St Peter's Chorale, and Unity and The Dreaming Land for massed choir and orchestra, presented by the NSW Performing Arts Unit.

Since 2000, Matthew has completed many commissioned works for large and small groups. Eternity, scored for the massed voices of 19 Sydney college choirs, with orchestra and organ, was written for The Millennium Concert, held at St Mary's Cathedral, Sydney, in July 2000. Also premiered in 2000 was Links, an a cappella setting of poetry by John Kinsella, performed by the 51st Australian Intervarsity Choral Festival Choir.

Subsequent commissions included: Aviation (commissioned for the 2001 Australian Voices Festival in Brisbane), Araluen (written for the 2001 St Peter's Chorale international tour), A dream only just begun (commissioned by Ars Musica to commemorate Australia's Centenary of Federation), Waratah (for the Sydney Philharmonia Choirs and Ensemble), Child Sightings (for The Brisbane Chorale), The Paean (for Gondwana Voices), Pukerangi (for solo mandolinist, Michael Hooper), Bird of Paradise (for the Grevillea Ensemble), Huge Earth (for St Andrew's Cathedral School massed SATB and SA choirs, motet choir, orchestra, pipe organ and soloists David Helfgott, piano & Laura Bell, recorder), Timothy's Toys (for The Melbourne Chamber Choir), Ezekiel (for The Hunter Singers Canadian Tour), She Like the Moon Arises (for The Grevillea Ensemble, featuring Guest Artist, Diana Doherty), Night (a work scored for handbells, SATB choir, clap sticks and didgeridoo in C, commissioned for performance at the 2006 International Handbell Symposium, Brisbane) and two Australian Christmas carols (If Christ had been born in another time..., and Nativity) commissioned in 2008 by The Oriana Chorale, (ACT).

Matthew's commissions for 2009 / 2010 include Butterflies dance (for The Australian Voices, QLD), All is one and one is all (for In Harmony Choir, NSW), The Blue Gum Forest (for the 60th Australian Interschool Choral Festival, TAS), a suite of three new works for symphonic wind ensemble (entitled Arrival of the baby elephant, Hippopotamus and Big Cats) for publication by Reed Music, VIC, an a cappella SATB score entitled My Nurse and I (for Concordis Chamber Choir, VIC) and a work entitled Communion of Reparation (for Our Lady of Sorrows) for the Sydney Conservatorium Chamber Choir, in commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

Matthew is in demand as a Visiting Composer at numerous Sydney high schools. He is a Full Writer / Member of APRA and a Represented Composer of the Australian Music Centre. When not composing music, Matthew may be found swimming at the beach, reading a book, cycling, playing piano or exploring his hobbies of clay sculpture and painting.
